

Intersession assignments for 4B Hebrew

Happy break 4B! I hope you enjoy this wonderful time with your family and friends. Below is a small assignment for each week, except the week of New Years. Most of them involve playing games on the CD. In addition, I have included some handouts (copies from the Skills and Drills book) to continue to strengthen your Hebrew recognition skills! Please have your parents sign on the line below after you have completed each week's activity. Keeping up with the reading and concepts is important for starting next semester on the right foot. Thanks, and have a wonderful winter break! Questions? Feel free to contact me at ellyn.getz@gmail.com

Morah Ell

Week of the 18th: Hanukkah starts this week! Practice reading the Hanukkah blessings in the family room on your cd, or on page 59 in your books. Use them when you light candles for Hanukkah! Also read p. 60 and learn about dreidels and the order of lighting candles!

Week of the 25th. Break! No Homework! Happy New Year!

Week of the 1st: Replay the games in Ben's room. Say Modeh or Modah Ani when you wake up at least one day this week! (The prayer is right on page 6 in your Kol Yisrael books!) When did you say it? _____.

Also! Please take a look at page 8 from the Skill and Drill book (copied below)! This worksheet may look familiar! We tried it out at the beginning of the semester, and I'm challenging you once again to take a look at all of the letters! Do you feel more comfortable identifying the letters and sounds this time around?

Week of the 8th: Replay the games in the kitchen. Say each food blessing over a meal at least once over this week. They can be found on pages 12-13.

What was your favorite food that you said a blessing over? _____.

Time for the Skill and Drill worksheet! The next handout for you to take a look at is page 12 (copied below)! Look at the chart and see how much you've learned this semester! We've covered all of the Hebrew letters in class (gone over their differences and unique shapes, sounds, etc.) Now's a chance for you to test your understanding! You've got two weeks to fill out the charts! Good luck!

Week of the 15th: Replay the games in the study and dining room. Pay attention to learning the Shabbat blessings. What do you do on Shabbat in your house? _

And please continue with "The Aleph Bet" worksheet (page 12) from last week if you haven't finished it yet!

Also, if you do not know already, please ask your parents what your Hebrew name is, what it means and why it was given to you. If you don't yet have a Hebrew name, you can pick one with your family or wait until you get back to BJEP and I will pick one with you. We will be learning about Hebrew names when we get back. You can jot down some notes (like your Hebrew name) here if you would like:
