

THE BJEP EXTENDED DAY PROGRAM

“For my children, this was the best part of BJEP”

The Extended Day Program starts up again on January 22, 2012 at 12 noon:

Chug Ivri, the conversational Hebrew club, is open for students in 5th, 6th, and 7th grades and meets weekly from 12 to 1 pm. If your child is new to this program, please contact Director Dena Glasgow at dglasgow@bjep.com to make sure we can accommodate your child’s level. Cost is $160 for spring semester.

The Israeli Dance Club, for students in 5th, 6th, or 7th grade, meets weekly from 12 to 1 pm. We didn’t meet first semester due to insufficient sign-ups. We would love to have it take off this semester. This club is an opportunity to learn a variety of cool Israeli dances (“from hora to hip hop”). Participants will have an opportunity to perform in the spring. Cost is $160 for spring semester. Email abaron@bjep.com right away if your child is interested.

The BJEP Theatre Club for students grades 1-7, meeting weekly from 12 to 1:15 pm. Join

Miss Kat and Miss Ellie this second semester for fun theater games and improvisational acting. The activities will range from specific acting exercises to games that get you moving and warm up the dramatic mind. Games will include (but are not limited to): Wax Museum, Eye Contact, Mission Improbable, ABC Scenes, Questions Only, Freeze Dance, Concentration, Molecule Tag, and many more! Each week will also include a Bibliodrama, where kids act out a biblical story. Email Miss Ellie at gabriellaesther@yahoo.com with questions. Cost is $200 this semester.

Please note that, assuming weather doesn’t interfere, each club will meet 11 times this semester. As of now, we will not be meeting the last day of BJEP on May 6. However, we will let you know if the schedule changes (and then we will meet on May 6 as a make-up). Questions? Contact Dena Glasgow at dglasgow.bjep@gmail.com or 617-734-4997.

*Please fill in the form below if interested in the Extended Day Program for your child.
